Sponsor a Seat of Learning

IN THE MERMAID LECTURE THEATRE

‘The Mermaid’ building hosts a specialist lecture theatre and auditorium which will inspire pupils to learn, present, debate and study in a space designed similarly to those in Universities.

This will play a key role in our pupils’ development, and help them prepare for their educational journey post Epsom and into the world of work.

To be part of this unique project we are asking our community to join us in naming a seat. These engraved seat plaques can be named after yourself, your family, your child or an inspirational teacher, with all proceeds helping fund this new exciting building.

To name a seat and support this appeal, please call the Development Department on 01372 821042 or email: development@epsomcollege.org.uk

A donation of £350 is required for each ‘Seat of Learning’.

You can pay online, by card over the phone or by bank transfer. Alternatively, for current parents, there is the option of paying with school fees.

We also welcome all anonymous donations.

Please call the Director of Development in confidence on 01372 821290.

See overleaf for details on how to make your donation.

THANK YOU

Name a Seat: Leave a lasting legacy by naming a seat in The Mermaid for £350. A single seat may have two lines of text with 15 characters per line, including spaces and punctuation. We are recommending current pupils have their name, house and start year or, if currently in Lower School, their name and start year. Please write your chosen engraving in the boxes below.

I wish to discuss other sponsorship opportunities with the Director of Development, Helen Tranter
